Biography

Dr. Recep Ulucak (r.ulucak@erciyes.edu.tr) is an associate professor at the department of economics at Erciyes University. He holds his PhD in economics from the Social Sciences Institute of Erciyes University. Recep researches ecological economics, sustainable development, environmental economics, applied economics, and econometrics. His research interests include big data analysis, climate change impacts, and sustainability issues. He has published in a variety of journals indexed in the Web of Science Core Collection, such as “Sustainable Development, Resources Policy, Sustainable Cities & Society, Journal of Cleaner Production, Science of the Total Environment, Renewable and Sustainable Energy Reviews, Sustainability, Journal of Environmental Management, Environmental Science & Policy, Ecological Indicators, Environmental Science & Pollution Research, Energy, Nuclear Engineering and Technology, Business Strategy and the Environment, Spatial Economic Analysis, Tourism Management Perspectives, Tourism Economics, Global Business Review, see publications.” He reviewed numerous research articles indexed by Web of Science (see publons profile) and participated in many international conferences. He was listed among the world's most influential researchers, prepared by scholars from Stanford University (see for 2021 & see for 2022), and also awarded by TUBITAK, the Scientific and Technological Research Council of Türkiye, because of his “highly qualified studies at an international level on environmental economics and sustainable development” (see) in 2021.
